Scriptural Reasoning

Application for Membership

Membership of Scriptural Reasoning (Registered Charity: 1130605) is open to men and women who are believers from one of the faith traditions represented in the Society's member Scriptural Reasoning groups, and who agree to abide by the Community Ethic ('the Oxford Ethic') of the Society, and who have attended at least three meetings of any established Scriptural group within the last twelve months. After the first year since joining, a member may renew his or her annual membership provided he or she has attended at least one meeting of any established Scriptural Reasoning group within the preceding twelve months.

Annual membership is valid from 1 January to 31 December of the calendar year in which a member joins or renews his or her subscription. Membership is free of charge for all, but a member should yearly make a donation to the work of the Society equivalent to one thousandth of his or her annual income. A member who is a pensioner, full-time student, unemployed or of limited means need not make a donation. Scriptural Reasoning is a sacred practice working with most holy texts, and we accept only ethical, good-faith donations.
